Within ten (10) days of the act causing the difference or within ten (10) days of the time when the Employee first became aware, or should reasonably have become aware that a difference allegedly had occurred, the Employee shall discuss the matter in a Step 1 meeting with the Employee's Supervisor who is not within the scope of this Collective Agreement with a view to resolving it. The Employee's Supervisor shall respond in writing within fifteen (15) days of receiving the grievance. An Employee shall have the right to have a Union Steward or Union Representative present during discussion at this Step.

Step 2

If no settlement is reached at Step 1, the difference becomes a grievance, which must be submitted in writing, specifying the nature of the grievance pursuant to Clause 13.02, and the redress sought. The grievance must be signed by the Employee and submitted to the President of the College within ten (10) days of the receipt of the response in Step 1. The

Where either Party requests that a grievance be submitted to Adjudication, the request shall be submitted to the other Party in writing, within twenty (20) days of the receipt of the Step 2 decision.

During the twenty (20) days mentioned in Step 3, the Parties may mutually agree to apply for grievance mediation. If no settlement is reached at mediation, the twenty (20) days would commence from when mediation has concluded.

- 13.04 Either Party may request an extension of the time limits mentioned above provided that such extension is requested prior to the expiry of the time allowed. Where such extension is requested, it may not be unreasonably denied.
- 13.05 Either Party may request a Meeting at Steps 1 or 2 which shall not be unreasonably denied. The grievor shall be permitted to be accompanied by a Union Steward or Union Representative to assist the grievor at such Meetings.
- 13.06 Both the Union and the Employer shall have the right to process, as Policy Grievances, items which may arise regarding interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement through the above mentioned procedures commencing with the 2nd Step, provided that the grievance is submitted, in writing, within thirty (30) days from the date the grievor became aware, or should reasonably have become aware, of the incident prompting the grievance.
- 13.07 In the event the grievor fails to follow the procedure and time limits established in the Steps of the Grievance Procedure, or amended pursuant to Clause 13.04, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned.
- 13.08 When the recipient of the grievance fails to respond within the time limits prescribed in the Grievance Procedure, or amended pursuant to Clause 13.04, the grievance shall advance to the next Step of the Grievance Procedure.

- 33.02 Other than in exceptional circumstances, no more than ten (10) working days per regular Full-time equivalent year will be granted as leave with pay.
- Where possible, the request must be documented in writing in advance of the absence. Reasons for discretionary leave may include personal leave, bereavement, family illness, and emergencies.
- 33.03 A leave of absence without pay must be authorized by the Employee's immediate Supervisor, prior to such time(s) the leave(s) is to be taken. Leave of absence without pay may be approved providing operational requirements permit, and the availability of suitable replacement personnel permit.
- 33.04 A request for leave of absence without pay must where possible be submitted in writing at least two (2) weeks in advance of the commencement of the leave.
- The leave will not normally exceed twelve (12) months in duration, unless mutually agreed to by both Parties.

Maternity/Parental/Adoption Leaves

34.01

Maternity Leave

(a) Entitlement

A pregnant Employee who has been employed for at least fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks is entitled to maternity leave without pay.

The maternity leave to which a pregnant Employee is entitled is a period of not more than fifteen (15) weeks.

The Employer shall not deny the pregnant Employee the right to continue employment during the period of pregnancy unless the pregnancy interferes with the performance of her duties. The Employer may require medical documentation verifying that there are no health related issues that prevent continued employment. The cost of such documentation shall be paid by the Employee.

(b) Commencement of Maternity Leave

Maternity leave shall commence at a time designated by the Employee, within twelve (12) weeks of the estimated delivery date, but no later than the actual date of birth of the child.

(c) Seniority Status

While on maternity leave, an Employee shall be entitled to accumulate seniority in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

34.02

Parental/Adoption Leaves

(a) Entitlement

An Employee is entitled to parental leave as follows:

(i) in the case of an Employee entitled to maternity leave, a period of not more than thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks immediately following the last day of maternity leave;

(ii) in the case of a parent who has been employed by the Employer for at least fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks, a period of not more than thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks within fifty-two (52) weeks after the child's birth;

(iii) in the case of an adoptive parent who has been employed by the Employer for at least fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks, a period of not more than thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks within fifty-two (52) weeks after the child is placed with the adoptive parent for the purpose of adoption.

If Employees described under this clause are parents of the same child, the parental leave may be taken wholly by one of the Employees, or be shared by the Employees. The Employer is not required to grant parental leave to two Employees at the same time, if the two Employees are parents of the same child.

(b) Commencement of Parental/Adoption Leave

An Employee must give the Employer at least three (3) months written notice of the date the Employee will start parental leave unless:

- (i) the medical condition of the birth mother or child makes it impossible to comply with this requirement;
- (ii) the date of the child's placement with the adoptive parent was not foreseeable.

If the Employee cannot comply with the written notice requirement for any of the reasons stated under (i) or (ii) above, the Employee must give the Employer written notice at the earliest possible time of the date the Employee will start or has started parental leave.

Employees who intend to share parental leave must advise the Employer of their intention to share parental leave.

(d) Return from Maternity/Parental/Adoption Leave

An Employee on maternity leave must take a period of leave of at least six (6) weeks immediately following the date of delivery, unless the Employee and her Employer agree to shorten the period by the Employee giving her Employer a medical certificate indicating that resumption of work will not endanger her health.

34.03 An Employee who is not yet on maternity leave, and who wishes to transfer to another position or request temporarily revised job duties due to the pregnancy, may request a transfer to more suitable work if available. Where no suitable position or duties are available, the Employee may either request maternity leave, or, if a valid medical reason for absence relating to the pregnancy exists, the Employee may request Illness and Sick Leave.

34.04 The Employee must provide three (3) months written notice prior to her scheduled date of confinement or notice of the impending adoption.

34.05 Upon receipt of fifteen (15) calendar days notice of the Employee's intention to return to work, the Employee shall be guaranteed to return to her/his former job assignment, or be placed in another job assignment, at no less than the salary and benefits level that she/he had prior to commencement of the leave. An Employee must resume work on the date specified in the written notice and if the Employee fails to return to work on that date, the Employee is not entitled to resume work subsequently unless the failure to return to work resulted from unforeseeable or unpreventable circumstances.

If an Employee fails to provide at least fifteen (15) calendar days notice before the end of the leave period to which the Employee is entitled, the Employee may not resume work unless the failure to provide the notice resulted from unforeseeable or unpreventable circumstances.

An Employee who does not wish to return to employment following maternity, parental or adoption leave must give four (4) weeks written notice of intention to terminate employment.

- 34.06 An Employee who returns from leave under the provisions of this Article, shall have the leave time recognized as service towards vacation leave entitlement as per Clause 32.02.
- 34.07 If an Employee elects to continue benefits coverage, the cost-sharing arrangements provided by Clause 30.02 of Article 30 - Employee Benefits, shall be provided for the maximum length of the leave, subject to the approval by the insurer.

Further, the Parties recognize a behavioural health problem as a condition which can respond to therapy and treatment; therefore, an absence from duty due to such therapy or treatment may be subject to the sickness provisions of this Agreement.
- 36.03 The Parties further agree to an exchange of information where applicable, pertinent to the treatment and progress of an Employee during such treatment provided that such Employee consents to an exchange of information.
